

ThZ 2/70 (2014)

Abstract

The author argues, that Luther's doctrine of justification includes a mystical core, at least in the elaboration of this doctrine in the Commentary on Galatians (1531/1535). This mystical element can be described as faith (fiducia) mysticism.

Wolfgang Enderlein, Berlin