

Historical Narratives and Memorialization of COLLECTIVE VIOLENCE IN ANTIQUITY

WEBINAR

Thursdays 3–4 pm (Central European Time)
9–10 am (Eastern Time)
September 24 – December 10, 2020

September 24 Stephen Germany (University of Basel)
Memorializing Saul's Wars in Samuel and Chronicles

October 1 Izak Cornelius (Stellenbosch University)
"Memories of Violence" in the Material Imagery of Karkemish, Zincirli and Tell Halaf

October 8 Nathan Arrington (Princeton University)
Material Responses to Collective Violence in Classical Athens

October 15 Maria Brosius (University of Toronto)
Violence Exacted and Violence Suffered: From the Persian King's Perspective to that of the Enemies of the Empire

October 22 Cancelled: Hanspeter Schaudig (University of Heidelberg) Marduk's Battles: Babylon's Claim to Power and the "Myths of Conflict"

October 29 Helge Bezold (University of Basel)
(10 am EDT) Fighting Annihilation – The Justification of Collective Violence in the Book of Esther and Beyond

November 5 Julia Rhyder (University of Basel)
Hellenizing Hanukkah: War Commemoration in 1 and 2 Maccabees

November 12 Simon Lentzsch (University of Bochum)
The Darkest Hour (?): Military Defeats during the Second Punic War in Roman Memory Culture

November 19 Jessica Clark (Florida State University)
Rebellious Narratives, Repeat Engagements, and Roman Historiography

November 26 No lecture (US Thanksgiving)

December 3 Antonio Loprieno (University of Basel)
Israel's Violence in Egypt's Memory

December 10 Damien Agut-Labordère (CNRS/Paris)
Real Fights or Comic Mockery? The Nature of Violence in the Battles of the Inaros Cycle

